SIR,

With reference to your letter No.W.117 dated 19/7/1943 on the above subject, I have the honour to furnish hereunder particulars regarding the character and antecedents of the candidates as follows:--

1. Vittal Rao Pawar Narayan Rao: He is the son of Mr.Vittal Rao Pawar and nephew of Mr.Panduranga Rao Pawar of the 4th Troop, Mysore Lancers, Hebbal. He comes of the Pawar family of Maralwadi village, Kankanhalli Taluk, Bangalore District, the members of which are ascertained to be very loyal to the Mysore Government.

His character and antecedents are ascertained to be good and there is nothing adverse against him. It is also reported that he has not taken part in any of the political or anti-Government activities nor has he got any relationship with persons who have taken part in such activities.

2. James Joseph Chelvaraj: He is the son of Mr.James Joseph, Time-keeper, Oorgaum Mines, Kolar Gold Fields. He was born and brought up at K.G.F., and has studied upto Senior Intermediate. He comes of a respectable family and is said to be a quiet going young man. He is ascertained to be of good conduct and character and there is nothing against him in the Police records. It is also learnt that neither himself nor any of his relatives has taken part in any subversive or anti-Government activities or has got anything to do with any of the political organisations.

3. Bernard Athnasius Wilfred D'Costa: He is the son of late Mr.Casmir D'Costa. His elder brother Mr.Anthony Joseph Michael D'Costa is a clerk in the Traffic Manager's Office, Mysore State

Railway and two of his cousins, Messrs:B.L.D'Costa and R.J.D'Costa are employed in the Mysore Government Medical Department. It is reported that he was born and brought up at Mangalore and had his education in the St.Alysisus College, Mangalore. He used to visit his cousins and brother at Mysore frequently and he has not come to adverse notice in the Mysore State.

Further enquiries about his character and antecedents may be made at Mangalore as he is a native of that place.

4. Bangalore Ramaswamy Srinivasan: He is the son of Mr.A.Ramaswamy who is a native of Kollegal of Coimbatore District, and had his education at Salem and Trichy St. Joseph's College.

Nothing is known about his character and antecedents at Bangalore except that he has not come to adverse notice in Bangalore. Further verification may be made about him at Kollegal.
